rangement of Liver, Bowels and Kidneys. BYMPTOMS OF A DISEASED LIVER.

Bad Breath; Pain in the Side, sometimes the pain is felt under the Shoulder-blade, mistaken for Rheumatism; general loss of appetite; Bowels generally costive, sometimes alternating with lax; the head is troubled with pain, is doll and heavy, with considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of leaving undone something which ought to have been done; a slight, dry cough and flushed face is sometimes an attendant, often mistaken for consumption: the patient complains of weariness and debility; nervous, easily startled; fest cold or burning, sometimes a prickly sensation of the skin exists; spirits are low and despondent, and, although satisfied that exercise would be beneficial, yet one can hardly summon up fortitude to try it—in fact, distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred when but few of them existed, yet examination after death has shown the Liver to have been extensively deranged. SYMPTOMS OF A DISEASED LIVER.

It should be used by all persons, old and young, whenever any of the above symptoms appear.

Persons Traveling or Living in Un-healthy Localities, by taking a dose occasion-ally to keep the Liver in healthy action, will avoid all Malaria, Billous attacks, Dirriness, Nau-sca, Drowajness, Depression of Spirits, etc. It will invigorate like a glass of wine, but is no in-toxicating beverage.

If You have eaten anything hard of digestion, or feel heavy after meals, or sleep-less at night, take a dose and you will be relieved. Time and Doctors' Bills will be saved by always keeping the Regulator in the House!

For, whatever the ailment may be, a thoroughly safe purgative, alterative and tonic can never be out of place. The remedy is harmless and does not interfere with business or placette.

TT IS PURELY VEGETABLE, And has all the power and efficacy of Calomel or Quinine, without any of the injurious after effects.

BRADY HANGED.

Ten Thousand People Around the Prison.

Particulars of the Execution-His Last Moments-His Life-Other Foreign News.

IRELAND.

DUBLIN, May 14.—Joe Brady was hanged at eight o'clock this morning. A hanged at eight o'clock this morning. A vast concourse gathered outside the prison yard in which Brady was executed. A strong force of cavairy, infantry and police was present to preserve order. No attempt at disturbance was made, however. The morning opened beautifully, but there were showers about the time the execution took place. Brady rose at 6 o'clock. At 6:35 Canon Kennedy. of St. James' Church and Father O'Reilly administered the sacraments to the condemned man. The three remained praying until the arrival of the hangman. Brady submitted quietly while his arms were besubmitted quietly while his arms were be-ing pinioned and walked slowly and unflinchingly to the scaffold. The black flag indicating that the execution had taken place was hoisted over the prison at three minutes past eight. Almost immediately after the flag was Amost inmediately after the flag was raised a hearse and coach with mourners were seen at a distance coming in the direction of the prison. The police, however, interfered and prevented the vehicles from approaching. There had been reports circulating that after the hanging of Brady his friends would endeavor to excite the people to a demonstration by parading the cmpty hearse through the city. Brady was visited by his mother in the evening. She was heard to exclaim: "Mind, Joe, no statement." Brady smiled and repiled, "Don't be foolish;

DO YOU THINK I AM A FOOL?" It is stated the mother threatened to discown her son if he gave the government any information. A wreath of flowers was received by Brady to which was attached a card bearing an expression of grief at his fate from Irishmen living in Liverpool. Brady made no statement to the jall chap-lain, or to the governor of the prison. One of the last things he did was to write a letter to his mother. He carried a prayer-book in his hand to the scaffold and was thoroughly resigned and firm. His body fell nine feet and death was instantaneous. fell nine feet and death was instantaneous. Brady was dressed in the same clothes he were during his trial. The number of persons in the crowd outside the jail, it is estimated, reached ten thousand. The throng is said to have been greater than any of those which collected when the executions were public. At the moment a black flag was seen over the jail the cry was raised of "Hais off," and every head was uncovered. The crowd shortly afterwards dispersed quietly.

Brady is, according to a recent number of the London Times, a member of a some; what remarkable faqily. His parents are both living, and neither are sixty years of ago. The mother has given birth to twenty sons and five daughters, all of whom, so far as known, are living and employed in respectable positions. Brady's father has been in one employ for forty years, and is highly respected. He has always disclaimed any knowledge of his son's connection with secret societies. The family were, however, aware of Brady's intimacy with Carey, who, shortly before the assa-sination, asked Brady to become godfather to one of his children, which service he accepted. Brady was apparently a devout Roman Catholic, and was so highly esteemed by the clergy that he was given, and for nine years held the position of office-bearer of the Ann Street Chapel, Dublin, standing at the door and making the collections. In the performance of this duty he was faithful and gave satisfaction to all concerned. He was employed by the Dublin corporation in a cierical capacity, as was also the informer Carey, up to the day Dublin corporation in a cierical capacity, as was also the informer Carey, up to the day of their arrest. It has developed that he and Carey frequently took vacations with-out permission, presumably in view of later events, to meet with the Invincibles.

AN APPRAL TO AMERICA.

LONDON, May 14.—The Times says the speech of Gen. Grant at the recent annual banquet of the New York Chamber of Commerce was a fair sample of the opinion of the American people, which at present is aroused by the doings of the dynamite party. It is possible, if O'Donovan Rossa keeps temporarily quiet, the Americans again lose sight of the true facts of the Irish Question.

In all candor and kindliness we ask the American people to rid their minds of pre-

American people to rid their minds of pre-judies and recognize that the denunciaions by Irishmen of England are not now justified, but refer to bygone history. We do not ask the United States to put down organized ruffianism which pretends to impunity and encouragement under their flag. If they don't bestir themselves for their own character and comfort they are little likely to do so to oblige England; but they should recognize facts. The whole of England is convinced that the Government has dealt generously with Iroland, but must resist the demands of the Secessionists. The Americans do not in their hearts believe all Englishmen are hypocrites and tyrants, and should consider the effects of reckless language and cease saying what they do not think.

Smith, a well-known oculist of this city, became enamored with Abule, and went to Arizona with her, where, through the influence of Tom Fitch, known as "Silver-tongued Fitch," who was an uncle to Aunie Carpenter, Smith obtained a divorce from his wife. The latter, however, had the proceedings set aside as fraudulent when Smith arrived in San Francisco, and a suit followed, the result of which was that Smith had to pay $100 monthly to his discarded wife and was not permitted to marry. Annie and Smith have continued on Anne and Smith have continued on good terms until quite recently, when Fair, it is alleged, has captured fair Annie. She is described as being small und plump, with a doll face and china blue eyes, without particular accomplishments. Fair, it is estimated, is still worth $19,000,000, which is suce to be an incentive for a woman with less priu-ciple than the divorced wife to capture the Coal Miners' Strike. PITTSBURG, Pa., May 14.—The condi-tion of the coal miners' strike has under-gone no change since last week, and it is probable nothing will be idone until after the interstate convention, which meets here to-morrow. The minors of this district held a meeting to-day to arrange the details for the con-vention and appoint a committee to receive the delegations who will arrive tonight and to-morrow from other States. The operators also held a meeting this morning, and, after discussing the advis-ability of applying to the courts for the appointment of a trades tribunal to settle the difficulty, a committee was appointed to prepare a petition for signatures. In the meanwhile the committee will meet a similar committee from the miners and appoint an umpire.

Whitehalf's Sensation. WHITEHALL III., May 14.—Since the departure of Jos. Gardner, leaving his wife, children and creditors to speculate about his mysterious conduct, a reliable rumor comes that Joseph has another and preceding wife in England, and a grown son. His friends believe that he has re-turned to the slieged No. 1, who is ignorant of No. 2's claims. Another theory is that he has gone away with the third woman in the case, and will set up another establish-ment under legal guise elsewhere. It is believed this is an old game of his. Al-though he was well thought of here, it now appears that many were cognizant of his conduct, but refused to speak out of regard for his family

Testimony as to the Reputation of Miss

HARRODSBURG, Ky., May 14.—The tesprosecution to prove that Davis failed explain the Cincinnati affair to the Thompsons because he (Davis) had been informed that the Thompsons after examination, had pronounced the report wholly nation, had pronounced the report wholly false. Upon technical grounds this testimony was ruled out by the court. The attorneys were allowed to disavow the testimony in the absence of the jury. The prosecution then proceeded to assault Miss Jessie Buckner's reputation for veracity and general morality. James A. Tominson, brother of Mrs. Secretary of War Belknap and uncle to William Tomilson, who married Miss Buckner, and himself, the detective who, as alleged, traced Miss Buckner to a house of such character, as toca use a separation between herself and husband, testified he would not believe her under oath. Dr. J. O. Dedman testified that her reputation was so bad some people said they would not believe her under oach. The defeuse handed instructions to the court. They will argue instructions to the court. They will argue that Phil Thempson was not only temporarily demented with rage, but apprehen-sive on good grounds of peril to his person and life from Walter Davis.
